The Palm Beach Zoo will celebrate the 12th birthday of Colin, the Florida Panther, on Saturday, March 17.

From 9 a.m. until Noon, children can make birthday cards to decorate the Florida Pioneer House, adjacent to the panther habitat.

At noon, Colin's keepers will present the birthday panther with a special birthday gift containing food treats.

As a special treat, the first 500 children through the zoo gates will receive a surprise gift from the Palm Beach Zoo.

Florida panthers are endangered animals, also referred to as mountain lions, pumas or cougars. The Palm Beach Zoo is best known for its success in caring for cats of all kinds. The zoo's animal collection also includes four jaguars, two Malayan tigers, two ocelots and two serval cats.

Palm Beach Zoo is located at 1301 Summit Boulevard, just east of I-95 between Southern and Forest Hill Boulevard. Admission: Regular $12.95, Seniors 60+ $9.95, Children 3-12 $8.95, under 3 years and Zoo Members are free. For more information visit www.palmbeachzoo.org.
